Crested Butte Ski Resort

Crested Butte is located in Western Colorado, off the beaten path in the Elk Mountains. This laid-back area is one of the last real ski towns left in America. Escape the modern world in the downtown historic district, where local color comes in every shade of the rainbow from the bright Victorian storefronts to the hand-painted free town shuttle bus.

The town puts on a parade for Mardi Gras that is a spectacle and fun for all. Wearing costumes is encouraged.

Dramatic contrast between the historic Victorian mining town and the modern ski village just three miles away, makes Skiing Crested Butte one of the most fascinating vacation resorts in the Colorado Rockies. The skiing is also diverse, well-planned for all levels, plus an additional 550 acres of steep, ungroomed powder for the extreme enthusiast.

- 300 inches of annual snowfall
- 1,547 acres open
- top Elevation 12,162 feet, base 9,100 feet
- 16% advanced, 57% intermediate, 27% beginner

The Grand Lodge

We will be staying in the Emmons Studio Suites. Each is equipped with a king bed, full bathroom (tub/shower), and a second king sized Murphy bed (excellent comfy mattress like regular bed). The suites have kitchenettes with a seating area and dinette table and chairs including a microwave, dishwasher, sink, refrigerator, one burner stove, and dishes.

Additional amenities include high speed wireless Internet access (WIFI), DirecTV with LG 42" TV, coffee maker, in-room safe, iHome clock radio, hair dryer, iron and ironing board, voicemail, and bathrobes.

Free area shuttle pick-up/drop-off right at the front of the Grand Lodge will get you into town in just a few minutes.

In addition, the Lodge has a restaurant & bar, health club, spa, indoor & outdoor pool, hot tub, ski valet and daily housekeeping.
