

Snowbird, Utah

FEBRUARY 15-22, 2019 (Sat-Sat)

Snowbird Ski Resort is nestled in Little Cottonwood Canyon in the heart of the Wasatch-Cache National Forest. It's a powder lover's dream with over 500 inches falling annually. The resort boasts the longest ski season in Utah with over 3,000 of vertical feet and 169 runs. It is serviced by an aerial tram & has a connection gate with Alta, its neighboring IKON resort.

We will be staying at The Cliff Lodge offering a world-class spa, diverse dining and numerous outdoor swimming pools and hot tubs. The Cliff Lodge is one of North America's most iconic ski lodges, with ski-in/ski-out convenience and a luxurious resort experience.

Little Cottonwood Canyon can be seen from each room with two queen size beds, mini-refrigerator, and microwave. Amenities include: On-site ski rental and repair shop, free ski lockers, exercise room, heated swimming pool & three hot tubs, resort-wide internet service, and room service. The Cliff Spa, available for an additional discounted fee, features salon services, yoga studio, fitness center, rooftop pool and hot tub.
