

Powder Mountain, Utah— MLK Weekend

Utah POW Without the Crowds!

January 12-16, 2024

Join us for RSC's 7th annual trip to Powder Mountain. This is a great trip for an early start to the season, warming up for another weeklong trip, not having to use a week's vacation, or simply being able to get in a lot of skiing on a different kind of mountain.

Trip price: Finalized $ 1,645 pp, double occupancy.

Includes: Round trip air and ground transportation, 4 nights lodging, 3 day lift pass, welcome reception, daily breakfast buffet, group dinner and daily happy hours.

Deductions for: Own air -$625, senior discount (age 65-74) -$65, seniors age 75 plus ski free -$330.00

Optional: Additional days lodging or ski days. Single supplement available (private room/no roommate) or 3 to a room discount.

One of the unique aspects of Powder Mountain is that it limits ski passes to 1500 skiers per day so even on a holiday weekend there are no crowds and virtually no lift lines. One of the largest ski resorts at 8,440 acres- 25% beginner; 40% intermediate and 35% advanced. 2,800 acres of lift served terrain with lots of long groomed intermediate trails and at least one green trail off every lift. An additional 1200 acres of off piste terrain are accessible by lifts. Intermediate and advanced skiers can opt for powder guides and cat skiing. With a convenient layout and no lift lines you can get in lot of skiing in 3 days. Great on-mountain food reasonably priced. For those who come off the slopes a bit early, the Powder Keg has awesome local bands daily at 3:00pm.

Lodging at Home2 Suites, one of the newest hotels in Ogden. Huge suites with 2 queen beds, seating area with sofa sleeper, fridge and microwave. Fabulous breakfast buffet daily. Adjacent to Ogden Historic District with many restaurants ranging from budget to high end, and other non-ski options. We have a private bus for a beautiful and relaxing ride to/ from the mountain. There is a local ski bus option for those who might want a shorter or slightly longer ski day.
